

22nd Annual Stevie® Awards for Women in Business

2025 ENTRY KIT

www.StevieAwards.com/Women

WELCOME

We invite your organization to submit nominations to the 2025 (22nd annual) Stevie® Awards for Women in Business. This program is the world's premier business awards for female entrepreneurs, executives, employees and the organizations they run.

All organizations worldwide are eligible to submit nominations: large and small, public and private, for-profit and non-profit. Nominations may be submitted by individuals or organizations, and must be submitted in English.

The Stevie® Award trophy, the prize that is conferred in the Stevie Awards for Women in Business and all other Stevie Award programs, is one of the world's most coveted prizes. Many of the world's largest and most famous organizations have won Stevie Awards. Most of our winners each year are small and midsize companies that are still growing and building their brands, however.

This booklet explains how to prepare and submit nominations to the Stevie Awards for Women in Business. The first important step to entering is to review the categories and to choose the categories in which you'll participate.

Eligibility extends from January 1, 2023 through the date on which you submit your nominations. Nominations that won in the 2024 Stevie Awards for Women in Business may be resubmitted for consideration in the 2025 awards. If they have not been updated, they must be submitted to categories different from those in which they won.

In these pages you will find explanations of the submission requirements for all of these categories, and an outline of how to submit your entries. All of this information is also available on the website at www.StevieAwards.com/Women.

Honorees will be announced on September 19, and celebrated on Monday, November 10 in New York City. Attendance is not required to win.

We hope your organization will submit entries to the Stevie Awards for Women in Business. Please don't hesitate to contact us with your questions about how to participate.

Cordially,

MAGGIE MILLER

President, The Stevie® Awards

SELECTION OF 2024 WINNERS

AWARDS PROCESS

Judging of entries will be conducted in July-September. Chairs for the Judging Committees are recruited worldwide and invite senior-level executives to join their committees. Other judges can apply to judge on the Stevie® Awards for Women in Business website. If accepted, they will be assigned categories by Stevie® Awards staff, based on their industry, function, and experience.

During the judging, each entry will be reviewed and rated by no fewer than five (5) judges who have been approved as qualified (by Stevie Awards staff) to judge those entries. Rating will be done on a scale of 1-10.

All entries that receive an average score of at least 8.00 out of a possible 10 when judging is completed, regardless of category, will be named Finalists and automatically be eligible for Gold, Silver, or Bronze Stevie Award status. Finalists will be announced in mid-September and invited to attend the November 10 awards dinner in New York City. All Finalists will ultimately be named Gold, Silver, or Bronze Stevie Award winners.

The Finalist entry in each category with the highest average score after judging is completed will receive a Gold Stevie Award. Any other Finalist entries with a final average score of at least 8.25 will be designated as Silver Stevie winners, and will receive a silver medal. All other Finalist entries with a score of 8.00 or higher will be designated as Bronze Stevie winners, and will receive a bronze medal. Silver and Bronze winners will have the right to promote their Silver- and Bronze-winning Stevie status, and will have the option to purchase their Silver and Bronze Stevie statues.

The veracity of claims made in entries may be audited. Any entry found to contain false or misleading information will be disqualified. Gold Stevie-winning entries will be published on Stevie Awards for Women in Business website. Winners will have the opportunity to redact any confidential or non-public information from their entries before publication.

Entry fees for all categories in the 2025 Stevie® Awards for Women in Business are summarized in a PDF document which you may download here.

A separate fee is required for each category in which an entry is submitted, for categories for which payment is required. There are many free categories.

No refunds will be made after July 23. All entries submitted after July 23 will be assessed a late fee of $55 (per entry) in addition to the entry fee, but will not be penalized in any way in the judging.

SUBMISSIONS IN ENGLISH

We require that nominations be submitted in English so that we may recruit professionals worldwide to be judges.

If you and your colleagues are not English speakers and are unable to write or read the language, we recommend that you do the following:

1. Write your nomination(s) in your native language.
2. Use Google Translate or a similar online translation tool to translate your nomination into English.
3. While the automated translation of your nomination to English may not be perfect, it will be good enough to communicate the gist of your achievements to judges.
4. So that the judges will know that you used an automated translation tool to convert your nomination into English, we recommend that when you submit your nomination into our online entry system you begin your nomination with this first sentence, in English:

"An automated translation tool was used to translate this nomination into English."

The judges will then know to overlook any grammatical or spelling errors made by the translation tool.

5 Prepare Your Entries

Stevie-winning entries are:

- Well-written. They are terse and succinct. Their tone is modest.
- Focused on a few accomplishments. Describe in detail just a few, instead of listing many in brief.
- Accompanied by supporting information. Provide links that support the claims made in your entries.

6 Submit Your Entries as Soon as Possible

ENTRY PREPARATION TIPS

1 Write Your Entries Offline Before Submitting Them

Write your entries offline, so that you have a permanent record of them. It will then take just a few minutes to submit them through our easy-to-use online submission system. Don't write your entries on the fly online - if something goes wrong with your computer or there's a momentary glitch in our online system, your work may be lost.

2 Add Supporting Materials & Links

For most categories, attaching supporting files or web URLs to your entries is optional. But we strongly recommend that if you have no other materials to append to your entry, you at least provide the URL to your organization's website, so that the judges have access to some additional, basic information about your organization.

3 Focus on Achievements During the Eligibility Period

The eligibility period for the 2025 Stevie Awards for Women in Business extends from July 1, 2023 — entries should describe achievements since that date. (There is no eligibility timeframe for app, website/blog, and lifetime achievement entries.) While your entries may make reference to earlier achievements, they should focus extensively on achievements during the eligibility period.

4 How to Submit Entries for Multiple Clients

If you're a PR or marketing agency and you want to submit entries on behalf of multiple clients, create one account in your agency's name, with your agency's contact information and description. Begin each entry's title with the name of the client. Then we'll know that if they're recognized as Stevie winners the awards should be presented to your clients, not your agency.

5 Test Your Links

If you include links to online videos, images, or other supporting materials with your entries, test your links before you submit your entries. Preview an entry before you submit it, and click your links in it to ensure that they are valid and will present to the judges the content you would like them to see.

6 Video Entries and Other Media Materials

Your attachments should be directly downloadable and immediately accessible. If you wish to include a video, a link to a version hosted on YouTube, Vimeo, or a similar service that plays instantaneously is preferred. If you absolutely cannot do that, we encourage you to upload your video file to our server.

7 Giving Titles to Your Entries

When titling your entries it is not necessary to include the category name in the title - the category will be very apparent to judges when they review your entries. When titling the nomination of an individual person, the ideal title is just the person's name and job title. Unless you have other text that qualifies the nomination in a meaningful way, keep it simple.

10 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD ENTER

Entering is a cost-effective way to thank and honor your valued employees and to build or burnish your organization's brand.

The entry fees are nominal compared to the publicity boon your firm can reap when you become a Stevie® winner.

Small organizations have just as much chance to win a Stevie as big companies do.

There are scores of categories to recognize achievement in every facet of the workplace, from the executive suite to the training room.

If you're a solution provider or product marketer, your work will be reviewed and honored by potential clients, not just your competitors.

Many of the world's top business executives will review your nominations during the judging process, and you'll gain access to their comments.

Winners will be promoted across the Stevies website and social media as well as in email newsletters.

8

Winners have the opportunity to make a 30-second acceptance speech before an international audience during the awards dinner.

The Stevie Award is one of the world's most coveted prizes, designed by the same company that makes the Oscar and other major awards.

THE STEVIE® AWARD

The Stevie Award trophy is one of the world's most coveted prizes. Since 2002 the Gold Stevie Award has been conferred for achievement in the workplace to organizations and individuals in more than 70 nations and territories.

The name Stevie is taken from the name Stephen, which is derived from the Greek for "crowned."

The crystal pyramid held aloft by Stevie represents the hierarchy of human needs, a system often represented as a pyramid that was developed in the 1960s by psychologist Abraham Maslow, who observed that after their basic needs are met, human beings seek the esteem of their peers.
